APPLICATION FOR INITIAL LAC LICENSE

If you do not complete the entire application, it will not be reviewed.

Application Instructions Read the following instructions first. Failure to do so may affect your licensure process. Complete the Application for Licensure form and return it with all additional items below to the NDBACE office. All fees can be paid online through PayPal at <http://www.ndbace.org>.

Additional items required include:

- Official transcript showing an appropriate Bachelor's and/or Master's or doctorate degree was granted. Please send Master's Degree transcripts even if degree is in process.
 - Attach LAC Transcript Review Form
 - Official Transcript must be sent directly from the school to the NDBACE office.
- An official document verifying clinical training completion.
 - Verification of completion of a Board approved 960-hour clinical training program.
This must be submitted by your clinical supervisor or clinical training program director
-OR-
 - Verification of the completion of a non-board approved clinical training which is considered substantially equivalent as required by North Dakota Century Code chapter 43-45 and article 4.5-02.1.-01-04.
- Two letter of reference submitted on a board approved document.
- Documentation verifying a passing score on board-approved NCAC-II or MAC examination.
The scores must be received directly from the testing company.
- License fee based on date the board office received your application.

The North Dakota Board of Addiction Counseling Examiners' Law and Administrative Rules that govern the practice of addiction counseling in the state of North Dakota can be found on the board's web site at <http://www.ndbace.org>.

If you have practiced or been licensed in another jurisdiction other than North Dakota, you must indicate this on the application and contact the appropriate jurisdiction to provide verification of licensure and forward it to the NDBACE. The board must receive verifications in order to process your application.

It is your responsibility to properly complete the forms and send them to the NDBACE office at the address listed above. If you do not complete the application in full, it will be returned to you along with your application fee, and it will not be processed until it is complete. If you need any help or have any questions during the application process, please call the NDBACE office at (701) 255-1439.

NOTE: It is against the law to work as an addiction counselor until you are licensed in North Dakota
